Written in the form of fictional dialogues from bibliophiles, it purports to outline a malady called bibliomania. Bibliomania can be a symptom of obsessive–compulsive disorder which involves the collecting or even hoarding of books to the point where social relations or health are damaged. Bibliomania is not to be confused with bibliophilia, which is the usual love of books and is not considered a clinical psychological disorder. The Project Gutenberg eBook of Bibliomania; or Book-Madness, by Thomas Frognall Dibdin This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever.
