While Indian history begins with some confidence with the Mauryas, the Nandas are now emerging into the light of history with a little more distinctness. The following op-ed by Hanne Nabintu Herland concerns the Norwegian government's persistent soft spot for the Palestinians. It was originally published in Aftenposten, Norway's largest newspaper, on January 15th, 2013, and has been translated by the author. Founded in 1893, University of California Press, Journals and Digital Publishing Division, disseminates scholarship of enduring value. One of the largest, most distinguished, and innovative of the university presses today, its collection of print and online journals spans topics in the humanities and social sciences, with concentrations in ...
