Consciousness is the state or quality of awareness or of being aware of an external object or something within oneself. It has been defined variously in terms of sentience, awareness, qualia, subjectivity, the ability to experience or to feel, wakefulness, having a sense of selfhood or soul, the fact that there is something "that it is like" to ... Wootton's notion of practical Aristoteilian-esque virtue in the face of limitless appetite is compelling, and he stakes his claims persuasively.
