

Download Ethics In Educational Leadership Programs An Expanding Role

Ethics in Educational Leadership Programs: An Expanding Role. Beck, Lynn G.; Murphy, Joseph This book presents findings of a study that analyzed the ethical dimensions of administrator-preparation programs in University Council of Educational Administration (UCEA) member institutions. Ethics in Educational Leadership Programs will prove invaluable reading for those concerned with the nature of ethics and values in school administration. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende. Lynn G. Beck is Dean of the School of Education at Pacific Lutheran University. Her research and teaching focuses on administrative ethics, principalship, and leadership preparation. "In Ethics in Educational Leadership Programs, Lynn Beck and Joseph Murphy examine the educational administration programs of 42 universities regarding their policies on ethical concerns for administrators." Lynn G. Beck is Dean of the School of Education at Pacific Lutheran University. Her research and teaching focuses on administrative ethics, principalship, and leadership preparation.