As a result of a corrupt judicial court system, backed by political party affiliates, within this court system, along with criminal extortion of families of the accused and incarcerated, the author of Fear Did This went from a researcher for business entities and businessman to Lead Staff Investigator for the United States House of Representatives. A member of a Federal Habeas Unit stated that the author of Fear Did This is a "gentleman and a warrior". Fear Did This is the first book in a series of documented, raw facts presented in the cold light of day. It is the story of the transition of a carefree, innocent young man to an inmate within Ohio due to a totally corrupt judicial system in Trumbull County, Ohio. The author is clearly not a writer, and it shows. He should have gotten a ghost writer. There are so many facts, grand testimony, police reports, etc in this book, it gets sleepy at times. With that being said, I did enjoy the book since I am originally from the Youngstown area and even recognized some names in it.
