Students will need to bring government-issued photo ID -- for example, a passport, driver's license, BC Services Card -- to show proof of identity. Students without government-issued photo ID will not be allowed to write the exam; they will need to register for another sitting. The Langara English Test (LET) is an in-house exam that assesses the student's ability to read, understand, and write English at the college/university level. Students who would like more information and/or practice can buy A Guide to the LET – Preparing for the Langara English Test from the Langara Bookstore. A person's legal signature is, for example, what he or she writes on a credit or debit receipt. Students also need to print their name on the top of the instruction sheet and the exam sheet, and should read the instruction sheet included with the booklet before beginning the exam.
