Donald Kagan (/ ˈ k e ? ? n /; born May 1, 1932) is an American historian and classicist at Yale University specializing in ancient Greece, notable for his four-volume history of the Peloponnesian War. The term "Latin America" primarily refers to the Spanish and Portuguese-speaking countries in the New World. Before the arrival of Europeans in the late 15th and early 16th centuries, the region was home to many indigenous peoples, a number of which had advanced civilizations, most notably from South; the Olmec, Maya, Muisca and Inca. 1st Namesake Visit. On Friday 09 November the Sponsor, Dana L. Richardson, of the under-construction future USS OREGON (SSN-793) visited Portland. Women supported the war with their sewing and farming, and by boycotting British goods and engaging in other forms of protest. Although neither the American nor the French revolutions increased women's rights, these conflicts helped raise the idea of equality.
