Parent Involvement in Schools Parent and community-involvement strategies that work From time to time, Education World reposts a previously published article that we think might be of interest to administrators. Essential questions explore matters of import. They are worthy of our time and are likely to spark interest and awaken curiosity. They require new thought rather than the mere collection of facts, second hand opinions or cut-and-paste thinking. Parenting or child rearing is the process of promoting and supporting the physical, emotional, social, and intellectual development of a child from infancy to adulthood.
