This was a very good mystery, set at Pemberley, with all the Darcys, Bingleys, and others from Pride and Prejudice. It carries the story 6 years into the future, and does so with the proper formality and setting of the early 1800s. Truly, a "twist of fate" allowed Elizabeth and Darcy to see each other in a pawn shop of sorts, but the sad reality of Lizzy's situation as a paid caretaker and the family's reduced circumstances may lead us to believe a happy ever after is impossible for our dear couple.
