Helene Cixous is a huge inspiration for my own writing. She pens what I like to call "poetic prose." Her language is so rich, so heady with beauty, that I have to move slowly through the pages. I have read "The Book of Promethea" multiple times, each reading bringing new meanings and nuances. It is a love story, but don't go looking for plot or easy romance. This is all about swimming in words, letting the music of language wash over you. Be prepared to enter a new world of writing.
